April 7, 2014

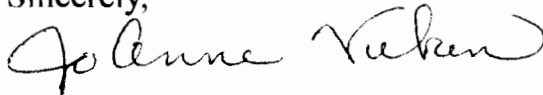

To Whom It May Concern;

On Friday April 4, 2014, Mr. Robert Gilman came into the office of the Montcalm County Treasurer. He handed the treasurer, JoAnne Vukin a document stamped: Filed (Copy)-LN, April 4, 2014 9:31am, Tracey Cordes, Clerk, U.S. District Court, Western District of Michigan. I stamped it as received and then I also stamped another cover sheet for Mr. Gilman's records. Then Mr. Gilman handed me a cashier's check in the amount of $3,726.17 that was dated 04/03/2014.

I explained to Mr. Gilman I would have to check with my attorney as to if I could accept his funds because the 31st of March 2014 was the last day to redeemed his foreclosed properties. My attorney confirmed my decision not to accept the payment of foreclosed property taxes because it was too late to redeem 2011 delinquent property taxes that had been foreclosed at the Foreclosure Hearing on February 7, 2014 in the 8th Judicial Circuit Court, Stanton MI.

Mr. Gilman did not appear at this hearing to contest the petition referred to in Case No.13K-17508-AA. It is my understanding according to MCL 211.78k (5) because no payments were offered to redeem Mr. Gilman's properties by March 31, 2014, all redemption rights expired.

Sincerely,

JoAnne Vukin
Montcalm County Treasurer
